PARKING & PAPER TICKETS/CITATIONS

1. Respond timely (within 72 hours if possible) in writing. One of the laws of administrative law is that you must refute any and all claims made against you by any government agency (and the IRS) within 72 hours of receipt of same. If you do, chances are you will not hear from the agency again. However, it is a good idea to follow up with a proper paperwork attack as soon as reasonably possible. Failure to respond within three days only means that a lot more paperwork will need to be done, not that the resolution of the problem has been lost.

2. Make a copy of the ticket or citation and keep the original on file.

3. Write on the front of the copy "I do not owe this" in big black or red writing that takes up the whole page. Do not sign it unless it has an original signature. Sign it if it does.

4. Hand write the "Notice of Commercial Dishonor". Follow your signature with the term "Without Prejudice, UCC 1-308".

5. Photocopy "To Whom It May Concern" and sign it.

6. Put the copy of the ticket (written on), the "Notice of Commercial Dishonor" and the signed "To Whom It May Concern" in an envelope and mail it certified mail. This may be the end of it.

7. If you hear back from them repeat the whole process. The power in this is to stay out of the court system by beating them in the U.S. Postal system. [This will work for all meter violations, all parking violations, and all no seat belt, no registration, no insurance, no safety sticker violations.

Remember that that which is not denied is admitted. In reference to any government inquiry, or false claim of an obligation upon you, or where facts are alleged against you that are not true and are based solely on presumption.....Always Respond, Deny, Accuse, Question, Establish Your Intent, Make Your Demand, State Your Authority and Set a Time Limit.

Following your signature with the term: Without Prejudice, U.C.C. 1-308 may be more important to your victories than the actual wording of your letters. International Law is now held to be part of the "Common Law" of our land. The jurisdiction of our courts these days is "Admiralty" because there is an "Implied Contract", which enveloped all of us, unless we employ International Law by the section marked, to free ourselves of the obligation imposed upon us by the implied contract.

The term "Without Prejudice, U.C.C. 1-308" simply means that the signer does not accept the "liability" that goes with the "compelled benefit" of an undisclosed contract or agreement, which any of us can do, under the Common Law that our nation was founded upon.

What is the "compelled benefit" that "We, the People..." living in this republic, known as the United States of America, enjoy and daily exercise, because the Legislative Branch of our 3-Branch Republic has failed us in its duty to coin our money, and regulate the value thereof?

Since we have no medium of exchange for the Republic, and we need a medium of exchange in order to live and do business, we are now compelled to accept the "benefit" of an implied Contract between the Federal United States (which has its origin in Article I, Section 8, Clause
17) and our Republic (or Continental United States); two separate nations. We daily use the "Colorable Currency" called Federal Reserve Notes (FRN's) of the Federal United States to "discharge" our debts, because we have no silver or gold coins of the Republic with which we may "pay" our debts. This so-called "benefit" that we enjoy at the hand of the Federal United States, through some sophisticated legalese of our lawyers, brings an "obligation" upon us to assume the debt liability of the Federal United States and therefore subjects us to the Internal Revenue Code and/or Service unless we employ this Law.

ATTESTATION

This Notice of Commercial Dishonor duly affirmed and subscribed to before me, a Notary public in and for the State of _____, County of _____, this ____ day of ____, 20___.

WITNESS MY HAND AND SEAL:

My Commission expires: Notary public

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

Let it be known that I reserve all of my rights under the common law provisions and proceed to base my claim of fraud upon all who so deny me these rights.

I shall continue to state I am not a resident of the District of Columbia, or a foreign corporation, officer, director, stockholder or employee of a foreign corporation, or a citizen of the United States, or a citizen of any corporate conglomerate state government, and am not a resident of any federal possession, enclave or fort, etc. If I of necessity receive any government benefits and privileges, it is without prejudice, reserving all rights as per the Uniform Commercial Code 1-308 . I am therefore not subject to the color of law jurisdictions of the United States in the corporate monopoly of the federal and state governments.

I am a natural and corporeal person, and cannot live in a corporate fiction called the United States, nor the corporate fiction called the state of California, nor the corporate fiction called the state of Oregon. I therefore claim my rights under the Oregon State Constitution, as well as the United States Constitution, which is the supreme law of the land. The Bill of Rights enumerates some of our God-given rights as sovereign citizens.

As a natural and corporeal person, I find that the incapacity with which you bind me, by forcing me to sign your forms, is indeed fraud in factum, as it has been done under misrepresentation.

I deny all jurisdictional claims you present over me. I further respectfully dishonor all claims against me this day, and all other days that I have been forced to enter into this jurisdiction by estoppel, fraud, misrepresentation, duress, coercion, mistake, etc.

THIS IS DONE UNDER THE FOLLOWING PROVISIONS OF THE UNIFORM COMMERCIAL CODE:

UCC 1-308 Performance or acceptance under reservation of rights.

A party who, with explicit reservation of rights, performs or promises or assents to performance, in a manner demanded or offered by the other party, does not thereby prejudice the rights reserved. Such words as "without prejudice", "under protest", or the like, are sufficient.

UCC 3-511 (1) (c) Waived or excused presentment, protest or notice or dishonor or delay therein.

(1) Delay in presentment, protest or notice of dishonor, is excused when the party is without notice that it is due, or when the delay is caused by circumstances beyond his control and he exercises reasonable diligence after the cause of the delay ceases to operate. Presentment or notice of protest, as the case may be, is entirely excused when (c) by reasonable diligence, the presentment or protest cannot be made of the protest given. I dishonor your presentment, or claim, upon me.

UCC 3-3-5 (2) (b) (c) Rights of a holder in due course.
(2) All defenses of any party to the instrument with whom the holder has not dealt, except...(b) Such other incapacity, or duress, (c) Such misrepresentation as has induced the party to sign the instrument with neither knowledge of its character or its essential terms.

UCC 3-601 (3) (a) The liability of all parties is discharged when any party who has himself no right of action, or recourse on the instrument.

(a) Reacquires the instrument in his/her own right.

UCC 1-103 Supplementary general principles of law applicable.
Unless displaced by the particular provisions of this act, the principles of law and equity, including the law merchant and the law relative to capacity to contract, principal and agent, estoppel, fraud, misrepresentation, duress, coercion, mistake, bankruptcy, or other validating, or invalidating cause, shall supplement its provisions.

UCC 2-609 (4) Right to adequate assurance of performance.
(4) After receipt of a justified demand, failure to provide within a reasonable time, not exceeding thirty days, such assurance of due performance as is adequate under the circumstances of the particular case is a repudiation of the contract.

UCC 2-608 (1) (b) (1) (b) (2) (3) Revocation of acceptance in whole or in part.

(1) The buyer may revoke his acceptance of a lot or commercial unit whose nonconformity substantially impairs its value to him if he has accepted it; (b) Without discovery of such nonconformity, if his or her acceptance was reasonably induced either by the difficulty of discovery before acceptance or by the seller's assurances. (2) Revocation of acceptance must occur within a reasonable time after the buyer discovers, or should have discovered, the ground for it, and before any substantial change in condition of the goods which is not caused by their own defects, it is not effective until the buyer notifies the seller of

it. (3) A buyer who so revokes has the same rights and duties with regard to the goods involved as if he had rejected them.

I HEREBY REVOKE all signatures on every, and all, state and federal documents which has my signature on it, and including those in the future if forced to do so.

I FURTHER DISCLAIM any a century oaths, or implied oaths, or contracts.
